INVITE TO THE TABLE

Art must become food for a meal all together (Maria Lai)

2015 miniartextilcomo

XXV 25th edition of the contemporary fiber art exhibition

Would you like to take a trip on Lake Como? Here is a rare chance to discover the historical villas and houses hosting the international contemporary art installations.

Imagine a beautiful sunny sunday on a luxurious private boat with all the fragrance of nature and the sun on your skin.

Have your ever visited Cernobbio? It is a truly wonderful town nestling in the lake Como's opening bay. The starting point of our excursion the magnificent art nouveau style Villa Bernasconi which exhibits fibre art works in its halls and gardens.

How about visiting the garden of Villa Carlotta and then just ten minutes later setting foot on shore at Bellagio?

You have the chance to visit, in just a few hours and in the utmost comfort, two of the most picturesque places overlooking lake Como, without the trouble of having to drive, park and organise a ferry crossing.

This and much more with the Arte&Arte Boat

A special tour of discovery of Lake Como from Art&Art for the 25th MINIARTEXTIL aboard a private boat that can take 130 people aboard. A unique opportunity to visit the exhibition venues of "INVITE TO THE TABLE. Art must become food for a meal all together (Maria Lai)".

As well as at Como's former church of San Francesco the exhibition also takes place at Villa Bernasconi in Cernobbio, Villa Carlotta in Tremezzo and in the charming village of Bellagio.

There are professional tour guides for your day dedicated to the lake's art and architectural heritage as well as to nature itself.

The service is available on Sunday May 17th 2015
